WAS VIOLATED
COURT RULING*Says House in City Costing
More Than $5,000 Can Not
Be Built Under Law*DENIES INJUNCTION*Holds That Brinton in Keeping
Silent Deprived Self of Right To Ask Order

The Industrial Commission violated the law of North Dakota when it permitted the Home Builders association to lend state aid to the building of a house costing more than $5,000 in a city or $10,000 in the country, according to the view expressed by District Judge W. L. Nuesse, in the suit of J. W. Brinton as a taxpayer, to restrain the Home Builders from continuing work on the house of Attorney-General William Lemke in Fargo, which Brinton alleged cost $25,000.

The Industrial Commission ought to be restrained from violating the law in any manner in the future, Judge Nuesse further declared.

The method pursued by the state, he said, might prevent the state lending its aid to building of a house for some renter whom the law was intended to benefit.

Denies Injunction
The action before Judge Nuesse was more or less informal. John F. Sullivan, of Mandan, appeared as counsel for the plaintiff while all of William Lemke's assistant attorneys, general, W. A. Anderson, Geo. K. Foster and Geo. Reinhardt, were present for the defense. The situation when the hearing adjourned was this:

Judge Nuesse over-ruled the demurrer of the defendants and held Brinton had a sufficient cause of action.

He said he would not grant a temporary restraining order in the case of Lemke's house because Brinton had not shown that the house was being built in violation of the law, and which would cost more than $5,000 in a city or $10,000 in the country.

The defendants were given 30 days in which to answer the complaint after which the case will be argued on its merits and an order issued.

View of Law
Judge Nuesse declared with positive view that it was his view of the law that the legislature contemplated that it would help the man of small means get a home and that the legislature placed the limit of $5,000 on the cost of a city home because of this.

Judge Nuesse declared that the mere fact that the industrial commission has seen fit to construe the law ought not to make any difference when the wording of the statute is so plain. The statute is mandatory. He declared that however high places the members of the Industrial Commission hold it is but an agent of the state and did not have power to override the plain intent of the law by its construction of the law.

When the case came up before the court, George K. Foster, assistant attorney-general, interposed a demurrer holding Brinton did not have a special interest in the matter.

Mr. Sullivan, speaking for the plaintiff's position declared that he believed the legislature in enacting the Home Builders law did not have in mind people who wanted to build homes costing $10,000, $20,000 or $30,000 but he believed it had in mind the persons of small means, and that was the reason the limit of the cost of a house was fixed. He pointed further that the legislature distinguished between the cost of a city home and a farm home as supporting his position that the legislature had in mind limiting the cost.

This act should not be construed so that the Industrial Commission can loan $4,000 to men building homes costing $25,000, he said.

Will Pay for Houses
One of the matters brought out in Judge Nuesse's discussion of the case which he said was partly for the purpose of informing attorneys of his position on matters involved though perhaps not at issue just now was with reference to homes other than Lemke's.

Judge Nuesse declared his belief that although the Industrial Commission violated the law in making the contracts for houses costing more than $5,000 the persons for whom the houses were built must pay the cost of them as contracted. Reports he said were that the home builders had been conducted inefficiently and the houses would cost more than the people were willing to pay for them.

If the persons for whom they were built could escape payment the state would be left with over expensive houses on its hands, he held.

Conclusion View
The Home Builders Association took the interpretation of the law that the state could give aid to a home builder to build a house but that the aid for a farm home must not exceed $8,000 or a city home $4,000. The law which provided that a city house should not cost more than $5,000 or a farm home more than $10,000 provided that the state should not pay more than $4,000 or $8,000 respectively of the cost. Because of the expense of building the commission ruled that the state might invest $4,000 for example in a city home and the builder furnish the balance.

GOOD DAIRY RECORD.
Carson Aug. 1.—The junior 2-year-old heifer, Pauline Zander, De Kalb Segs 52667, owned by Wm. F. Ryan, of Lark, finished a successful seven day record the past week in which she produced 1277 pounds of butter and 482 of milk the best day's production being 514 pounds of milk. The feed she consumed during the test cost 30 cents a day and the milk she produced was worth at market value $1.06 per day so she returned a nice income above her cost of keep.

FREE WATER IS

REST OF YEAR*Bismarck Water Co. and Hughes
Electric Company Join in Gift of Water and Power*SAVES MUCH FOR CITY

Manager John Caulfield of the Bismarck Water Supply Company today offered to deliver water to the municipal swimming pool for the balance of this season free of charge to the city provided the Hughes Electric company makes no charge for the current used in pumping the water and provides free lights for the pool.

When the offer was made known to the Hughes Electric company the company consented to furnish the water free for pumping the water.

Under a recent decision of the Railroad Commission the rate charged by the Hughes Electric for pumping water from the river into the reservoir was doubled. Despite the situation officials say the water company is willing to do its share so the pool can be started under the most favorable auspices. But to enable it to do so the Hughes Electric company must donate the juice to furnish the kiddies, frequent changes in the water supply. The officers of the water company will make no charge for their service which involves considerable labor.

In addition the Water company has put in a special service man costing $400 to supply the pool.

The offer was made formally today to A. P. Leinhardt, president of the city commission who expressed himself as impressed with the fairness of the proposition.

Following a conference with City Commissioners Larson and Thompson the Hughes Electric company consented to furnish juice to the swimming pool for the purposes of pumping the water to the Bismarck Water Supply company's reservoir for distribution to the pool. The commission and Biks are elated over the solution of the problem of securing water which means a big item of saving.

COAL BLOCKS
DOCKS AT LAKE

Minneapolis Minn. Aug. 1.—Docks at the head of the lakes are practically blocked with coal which is not moving inland because of lack of demand according to W. W. Broughton, president of the Northwest Coal Dock Operators Association.

Unless there is a substantial increase in demand from the consuming public very soon so that shipments can be made to inland points from the head of the lakes to make room for the necessary additional receipts. Mr. Broughton said the total tonnage of coal received here the lake close to navigation will not equal that of last year and may cause a coal shortage in the Northwest.

Figures supplied by Mr. Broughton up to July 27 showed receipts of bituminous coal at Duluth Superior and a blend of 4,840,000 tons compared to 5,840,000 tons for the entire year 1920. Receipts of Anthracite coal were 1,140,000 tons as compared to 1,500,000 tons for 1920.

MRS. VIRGINIA ESPOSITO (ABOVE) WAS THE TWELFTH VICTIM IN CHICAGO'S 19TH WARD VIOLENCE WAR. INSIDE PICTURE: MR. JOHN POWERS FOR 11 YEARS POLITICAL RULER OF THE WARD AND MRS. AMELIA ESPOSITO WHO POLICE SAY MADE A CONFESSION IN CONNECTION WITH THE ESPOSITO KILLING.

12 ARE KILLED IN 19TH WARD WAR*Council John Powers Says He'll Quit Chicago Politics as Result of Feud

Chicago Aug. 1.—Sawed-off shotguns, revolvers and stilettoes have claimed 12 lives and maimed 1 child in the war that has been raging in Chicago's 19th ward not even.

As a result of the war, some of the district and residents are living behind locked doors.

Number twelve of the behind the back slayings—the shooting to death of Mrs. Virginia Esposito—has led police to believe that women are playing a part of hitherto unsuspected importance in the war.

The traditional wall of silence which has heretofore stamped politics in all towns has finally been broken down the police say through a confession they claim to have obtained from Mrs. Amelia Esposito, held in connection with the Esposito killing.

How It Started.
The general feud broke loose when Tony D'Andrea, Italian political leader, attempted to unseat Councilman John Powers. The latter has served for 30 years and was re-elected.

The bitter political fight led to the shooting down in rapid succession of followers of both D'Andrea and Powers. Then came bombing of homes, destruction of property, terrorist firing from speeding autos and a deluge of blackhand letters.

D'Andrea himself was shot to death. The last victim Mrs. Esposito was a widow of the first man slain. At the time of her husband's death she swore vengeance on his slayers—and kept paid for the deed with her life.

The Espositos were Powers' adherents. The Powers followed the D'Andrea clique.

Powers to Retire.
So bitter and bloody has the war become that Councilman Powers has announced his intention of retiring from ward politics. He never heeds a bodyguard's accompaniment. He has posted a $5,000 reward for the apprehension of the murderers.

Spectacular funerals have been held after every slaying. The 19th Ward has turned out in full force for the funerals, following the hearse to the grave. Meanwhile there is an unknown thing.

Fargo Aug. 1.—S. J. Doyle, United States marshal for North Dakota today received a letter from Attorney General Daugherty in which the attorney general explained that he desired to appoint a new marshal for the state and asked that Mr. Doyle resign.

The request for the resignation of Mr. Doyle is preparatory to the appointment of a Republican to the position by the Harding administration. Several persons have been named and the probable Republican appointee the most frequently mentioned being James Sheer who formerly was U. S. marshal.

Sometime ago the attorney general also requested the resignation of M. W. Hildredth, U. S. district attorney so that a Republican could be appointed to the position. Hildredth however refused to resign and no further action has been taken.

Only one major Republican appointment has been made in the state by the Harding administration, that of Gunder Olson to be collector of internal revenue succeeding W. E. Byerly Democrat resigned.

Cause of Disaster

Minneapolis Aug. 1.—Arthur C. Price, city fire marshal, announced today that he would conduct a thorough investigation of the circumstances surrounding the subterranean explosion in the business district Saturday night which resulted in thousands of dollars property damage and injuries to scores of persons.

Mr. Price said he would make the investigation personally.

From the reports I have received, he said, there seems to be no question that the electric cables running in the conduits beneath the pavement were the cause of the explosion. These reports also indicate that the blasts were brewing for several days and caused some alarm on more than one occasion before they happened.

THIRTY TO HOSPITALS.
Minneapolis Minn. Aug. 1.—Thirty persons were taken to the General hospital about 100 others were treated elsewhere for minor injuries and property damage estimated at $7,000 caused by a series of eight explosions in downtown Minneapolis Saturday night and early Sunday. None of the injured are hurt seriously and all except five were released from the hospital Sunday afternoon.

Most of those hurt were cut by flying glass or were bruised and stunned when thrown to the pavement.

Plymouth Mass. Aug. 1.—A hope that the disarmament conference called by the United States may bring to the world a new era of peace and freedom was expressed by President Harding in an address here at the terminus of the landing of the P.M. train.

Characterizing the international situation as more than promising, the president asserted that the seed of common tolerance and understanding planted by the fathers here was beginning to bear fruit a thousand-fold in the relations between nations.

New Hope Looms.
A new hope looms today, said the president. We are slowly but very surely recovering from the waste and sorrows and utter discouragements of a cataclysmic war. Peace is bringing its new assurances and penitent realization and insistent conscience will preserve that peace. Our race is firmer that wars cause may be minimized and overburdening armaments may be largely diminished and these two without surrender of the national spirit which has inspired or the good conscience which has defended.

The international prospects are more than promising and the distress and depression at home are symptomatic of early recovery. Solvent financially sound economically, unrivaled in genius unexcelled in industry resolute in distribution and unwavering in faith these United States will carry on.

In the course of his speech Mr. Harding praised particularly the part religious freedom and other New England traditions had played in the development of the nation. He also took occasion to deplore the common tendency to concentrate governmental authority in Washington and to reaffirm his faith in religion as an essential element of good government.

For marriage is, at best, something like buying a closed and furnished house—you have an inventory but you know only the outside and there is no way of knowing the hundred and on-surprising things which will happen when you really take possession.

Such a bargain to be successful requires faith which is beyond failure and cannot endure on the qualities brought to it when it serves merely as a refuge from something else.

BANK TAX IS KNOCKED OUT

State of North Dakota Loses In Law Suit

Attempts of the State of North Dakota to levy taxes on National banks on the basis of a 100 percent valuation are knocked out by the United States circuit court of appeals in a decision received here.

The decision affirms the United States district court, which held that the state was attempting to levy upon national banks a rate of taxation in excess of the rate of taxation levied against other forms of invested capital.

Legislation subjecting national banks to taxes in excess of those levied against other forms of invested capital is banned under the national bank law. Congress provides that national banks must be taxed on an equal basis.

The First National bank and the Merchants National bank of Fargo, joined in an action that is directed against E. C. Eddy, treasurer of Cass county, prohibiting him from attempting to enforce the collection of taxes provided for by the state act. The Federal court decisions grant the banks the relief they asked.

TO CONTINUE 44 HOUR FIGHT

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 1.—Plans for continuing the fight for the forty-four hour week will be the most important subject before the sixty-sixth session of the International Typographical Union which will be held at Quebec, August 8 to 13, according to officers at the international headquarters here. Approximately 8,500 members of the union are now out on strike to obtain the forty-four hour week and there is the possibility of further extension of the strike when contracts in New York, Chicago, Indianapolis and Cincinnati expire this fall, the union officials say.

Officials of the international union plan to be in Quebec August 3 for conferences preliminary to the opening of the convention. The committee on laws will also assemble the same day to receive any amendments to the laws or propositions intended for convention action. Only delegates to the convention or a local union may submit such amendments or propositions. Secretary-treasurer, J. W. Hays has already received a number of propositions covering a wide variety of subjects. Secretary Hays estimates that 300 delegates will attend the convention.

PROTEST PARDON OF SO. DAK. MEN

Mitchell, S. D., Aug. 1.—Resolutions protesting against the action of the board of pardons in paroling R. C. Hyde and Hoyt Prince from the South Dakota penitentiary, were adopted by the executive council of the state bankers association, at their recent meeting here. Copies of the resolution have been sent to members of the pardon board.

The resolution alleges that Hyde, who was sentenced from Davison county for a term of three years and who was pardoned six months before the expiration of his term, began operating in South Dakota and Minnesota immediately after his release and is still at large.

Prince was sentenced from Meade county for forgery and served one year of his five year sentence, the resolution recalls. The banking association protests against this parole because, the executive council asserts, "he had also issued checks on South Dakota banks running into thousands of dollars and had attempted to defraud Detroit and Minneapolis banks."

"It is common knowledge," the resolution states, "at the time of his arrest at Detroit that he had in his possession a stolen automobile."

"This resolution is offered and made," the manuscript continues, "not only in the interests of the banks, but in the interest of the general public, who in these cases, and in fact in most cases are the losers by allowing men of such caliber to be allowed to prey upon the public, who after conviction have been leniently dealt with."

THE MISTAKE THEY MADE WITH MARTHA

By RUTH AGNES ABELING
Martha's father had been a judge, something of a figure in his day. He was one of those men who asked his wife if he might remove his coat while in the house and who still believed in the pedestaled woman.

And so when Martha came, he immediately began to plan. She should be well educated, indeed quite finished, before she should mingle much with folk. She must be turned out on the world a finished product.

Thus she was taken to Europe and traveled to all of the places of interest and came back with trunks and boxes full of wonderful things. There were dishes made in the royal kiln in Germany, queer little handless cups with exquisitely colored flowers on them. There was glass from Italy, etched and marvelously colored. There were silk shawls of such delicacy that their web-like meshes slipped easily through a ring. There were wonderful linens and ribbons of such pliability and richness that they would outlast the life of their wearer.

When Martha came home she was put at studying. She was still very young when she could sit down at the piano and play from memory and intelligently numbers from Bach and Chopin and page after page of Czerny mechanisms. With her father she studied Greek, they conversed in French and German and she regarded reading some old Latin books as entertainment. She had no friendships with boys and very little time for girls, for there was too much to be learned—the other could all wait until she was finished and could select.

But somehow when it was all finished and Martha finally came home from New York with the finest music at her finger tips, Latin, Greek, French and German on the end of her tongue and an artificially developed sense of society and its forms—something was wrong.

The wonderful drawing room in which Martha was to preside and in which she was to serve marvelous foods and drink with the exquisite appointments was a failure because when there were really young people in it this brilliant girl did not know how to act or what to say. They were strangers who spoke in a strange tongue. And they went away and did not come back. So Martha, who had been young alone, went on growing old alone. Of course her father and her mother died and then folk called the woman who lived in the big house alone "queer."

Finally Martha became fond of a student 15 years her junior too fond, and then people actually laughed at this woman to whom a Bach-Burgund edition was play and who could speak several languages correctly while they could not handle even one well. Eventually the young student himself laughed—laughed at the gifts she showered him with and married a girl who could play a little ragtime and dance and talk a little of the same thing. So Martha went on living alone in the big house more shut away than ever and finally died alone and the few folks who went to her funeral went because they were curious. Martha had been "queer," they said, but what they didn't understand was that it wasn't Martha's fault and that at heart she was just like themselves and her queerness was the result of being denied a natural girlhood.

AMERICAN WOMEN, GIVE THREE CHEERS FOR LORD NORTHLIFFE

By Alice Rohe

New York, Aug. 1.—Let's pass by international problems, Irish questions, Japanese situations, Lloyd Georges for the moment, and look Lord Northcliffe squarely in the face. It's a very pleasant one, a little weary looking, and capable at the slightest danger-signal of changing to as determined, dogged, hands-off a face as any Englishman born in Ireland could possess.

Lord Northcliffe, all courtesy, granted me an interview shortly after his arrival here on his trip around the world.

But interviewing one of the world's greatest journalists, a man who knows the game from the ground up, is a matter of fencing.

That is, unless you talk about the non-political things Lord Northcliffe likes to discuss.

So I asked about golf.

Immediately the florid, smooth-shaven face radiated pleasure.

Japan's Land Problem

"I'll play golf most of the time I'm here in New York," he said. "I'm afraid I won't get much golf in Japan."

And then he added quite seriously: "I understand that land is so dear in Japan that they can't afford to go in for golf."

And there he hit upon the very thing that is at the bottom of the Japanese problem—the overcrowding of the island empire.

"The situation in Japan," he was on the alert in an instant. "I never express an opinion of any place I haven't visited. Now, the United States—why, I'll wager I know them better than you do. I'll say anything about the United States."

I accepted the challenge.

"Was Einstein right?" I asked.

"Einstein? You'll have to explain."

American Women

"Well, did he summarize Americans and American women correctly, though adversely?"

"Really—you know we don't pay much attention to Einstein in England," he replied. "I don't know what he said."

So THAT for Mr. Einstein. The relativity of his importance to Lord Northcliffe is quite clear.

"But," I persisted, "don't you think Einstein's statement that American women run the men and the country is as superficial as he calls American culture?"

"I can't answer Einstein—but I think American women are splendid, capable, intelligent, quick, efficient—and good looking and attractive."

"Do you credit women with much importance in the disarmament movement?"

"Yes. But no one in his right mind could be against disarmament. Our best answer to all queries is that we are already disarming. You have only to view the rotting British warships at Southampton to realize this."

"But wait till I get back from Japan," he smiled. "Then I promise you'll have so much to talk about you'll want to stop me."

MANDAN NEWS

LAND WITHDRAWN FOR INSURANCE

At least one-third of the cropped land in Morton county was withdrawn by the farmers from the compulsory hail insurance provisions according to James T. McGillivray, the county auditor's office who has been compiling the figures preparatory to making the report to the state hail insurance department.

The report shows a total of 1,160,392 acres of farm land in Morton county of which 716,644 is non-tillable.

A total of 303,983 acres of land have been planted to crops this year and 140,765 acres of tillable, are not in crops.

Farmers of 10,849 acres have made application for extension of time for withdrawal, while 57,194 were withdrawn from insurance. There are 205,739 acres carrying the $7.00 per acre state insurance and 4,802 which carry additional state insurance.

Of the total acreage of the county 433,748 acres are subject to the flat tax of 3 cents an acre.

Rev. and Mrs. E. G. Kuosman and family were in the city yesterday enroute by automobile to Oconto, Wis., where he has accepted a pastorate. Mr. Kuosman has been pastor in the Lutheran church at New Leipzig and Fleak for the past three years.

A. C. Dillman of the Northern Great Plains station returned yesterday from a trip through western North Dakota and Montana. Mr. Dillman says the flax crop will be considerably less this year.

Miss Mary Gibson, teacher in the local schools during the past term, was in Mandan between trains on Saturday. She is returning to her home at Bowman, where she attended the University Summer School.

Mrs. W. C. Van Horn and son and daughter, of Council Bluffs, Iowa, who have been visiting relatives and friends in Fort Clark and Mandan, have returned to their home in Iowa.

Mrs. A. C. Dillman and daughter have returned from Watertown, S. D., where they have been visiting relatives for several weeks.

Mrs. J. P. Hess and daughters, and Mrs. L. J. Borkenhagen returned from Shoreham, Minn., where they spent a month's outing at the lakes.

Mrs. F. J. Conrad and daughter left for Minneapolis, where she was called by the serious illness of her father, Neil Currie.

Miss Cecilia Lutz, milliner at the Boston Cash Store, left last night for her home in Oshkosh, Wis.

Mrs. W. C. Rendell and baby returned from Chicago, where they have been visiting friends.

Mrs. William Zeamer of Bismarck spent the week-end in Mandan visiting friends.

64 LEPERS ARE FREED AS CURED

BY HOWARD CASE.

Honolulu, Aug. 1.—Use of the new chaulmoogra oil specific as a cure for leprosy has been so successful at the Molokai island settlement for lepers here that 64 inmates of Kala hospital have been discharged as completely cured.

Authorities say that probably within 10 years the territory will have no further need of Molokai as a leper settlement; that settlements for leprosy will be a thing of the past, and that leprosy itself may perhaps be unknown.

To Arthur L. Dean, president of the University of Hawaii, goes the credit for perfecting the leprosy cure. Chaulmoogra oil long has been recognized as the standard specific for leprosy. Its one fault was that it had to be administered as a whole, with the result that the cure was slow and often inefficient.

Doctor Dean has separated from the bulk of the oil that element that combats the disease. It is this element, in the pure state, that has been used with such astounding results at Molokai. The process is by an intermuscular injection once a week and capsules administered internally three times daily.

Dr. W. J. Goodhue, for 18 years resident physician at the Molokai settlement, says that under the present method of treatment 65 per cent of the chronic cases of leprosy at the settlement will be turned out cured within the next two years.

Many of the patients at Molokai, however, never can recover as their disease was too far advanced before the cure was discovered.

There are 512 patients at Molokai and of these 175 have been under treatment with the Dean cure for five months. The chaulmoogra supply is entirely inadequate and each day four to five patients, who beg with tears in their eyes for treatment, are compelled to turn away.

Manufacture of the cure is being carried on now in only a small way, one of the main handicaps being the inability to obtain sufficient chaulmoogra seeds. Hundreds of plants are being reared at government experimental stations here and soon Hawaii will have a number of chaulmoogra oil-producing plantations.

Molokai used to be called "lonely island" because the lepers consigned to it rarely ever returned. Today it's called "happy island" because since the discovery that the Dean specific meant a permanent cure for the dread disease, the sunshine of hope has returned to the faces of the leper inmates. And the whole institution is full of eagerness and smiles.

NEW ATTACK ON RENT

By Newspaper Enterprise.

Chicago, Aug. 1.—A congress of experts to make a "practical and intensified study" designed to solve the rent problem is scheduled to meet here the first four days of August.

President F. E. Davidson of the Illinois Society of Architects has invited to the conference scores of nationally prominent business men, bankers and housing investigators.

Davidson is of the opinion that a home building boom is not far off.

"The labor situation shows signs of improvement" generally, he says. "Material prices are approaching normal, and most of the causes that retarded building this year will have been removed by 1922."

"This therefore is an opportune time to begin campaigning along educational lines for the institution of the home-buying public."

Aims of the congress include:

Providing means of financing the small home builder.

Facilitating operation of building loan associations.

Enhancing the architectural possibilities of the small home.

BISMARCK WINS LAST GAME OF SERIES, 5 TO 2

Valley City Takes Two Out Of Three Games on the Local Ball Diamond

MANDAN WILL PLAY HERE

Bismarck took the third game of the series with Valley City here, 5 to 2, Sunday afternoon before a good crowd, after Valley City had taken the Friday game and the Saturday game, the score Saturday being 6 to 4.

Sunday's game was a clean fast game all the way through, with some hard hitting, fine fielding and good base-running. It was "Buck" Taylor's twenty-fifth win of the season. The outfielders took most of the fielding honors. Lehman, of Bismarck, robbing Klein of a hit by a fine running catch in left and Klein and Goheen playing fine ball in center and right for Valley City.

Bismarck scored in the first inning Sunday. Coble struck out. Nichols got a hit. Collins hit for three bases, scoring Nichols, and scoring himself on Lehman's sacrifice fly. Wingfield went out to first. Swartz hit in the second inning and was driven home by Taylor and Nichols and a hit by Collins brought two runs in the fifth inning. Valley scored her first run in the second on a three-bagger by Goheen and a hit by Gilbert. Goheen also scored in the seventh when he got a two-bagger and Gilbert got a hit.

Saturday's game was taken by Valley City, 6 to 4. There was some loose playing on the local side which helped the visitors along to the victory. Brusek pitched good ball for Valley after the second inning, allowing but one more hit in the game.

The Sunday game did not begin until 3:30 although it was called for 3 p.m. The management explained that a request to hold the game had been made after the time was fixed, that the request was one it felt it could not refuse and there was no time to make a new announcement.

Bismarck plays at Minot next Friday, Saturday and Sunday and plays Leeds here the following week.

SUZANNE LENGLEN FEARS OUR HEAT! ALSO OUR DROUGHT!

SUZANNE LENGLEN

By FRANK TUCKFIELD
(Copyright, 1921, by Newspaper Enterprise.)

Paris, Aug. 1.—"You know I can wield a racket swim, dance and do lots of things better than I can talk."

It was in excellent English that I was greeted by Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen, woman's tennis champion of France, who is sailing July 30 to try for the national woman's singles championship of America.

Tall, lithe and graceful, Mlle. Lenglen moves with fawnlike ease and freedom. With deeply tanned skin, bobbed brown hair, vivacious eyes and ever-ready smile, she gives the impression of free, unfettered, joyous youth. She is a wisp of a girl whose only care is to live and to enjoy.

American Friends.
"I am getting ready for the longest journey I have ever made!" she said exuberantly. "I cannot tell you the joy with which I am looking forward to visiting America. I have so many American friends."

"I always wanted to cross the Atlantic and see that great wonderful country where life seems to flow so fast and everyone is so prosperous and well dressed."

Here she broke off. Then, in a lower tone:
"I'll let you in on a secret. The reason I put off my sailing date a week was because I feared my wardrobe would be too scanty. American girls are so stylish, I was afraid my dresses would suffer by comparison. So I persuaded mother to delay a week, so as to enable me to visit the Rue de la Paix."

Fears the Heat.

"Are you afraid of the American players?" I asked.
"Not exactly," she rejoined. "But you never know what may happen in tennis. What I fear more than anything is the heat. I understand our runner was entitled to the additional base.

The above facts should be enlightening to Old Timer and others who have taken different views of the play.

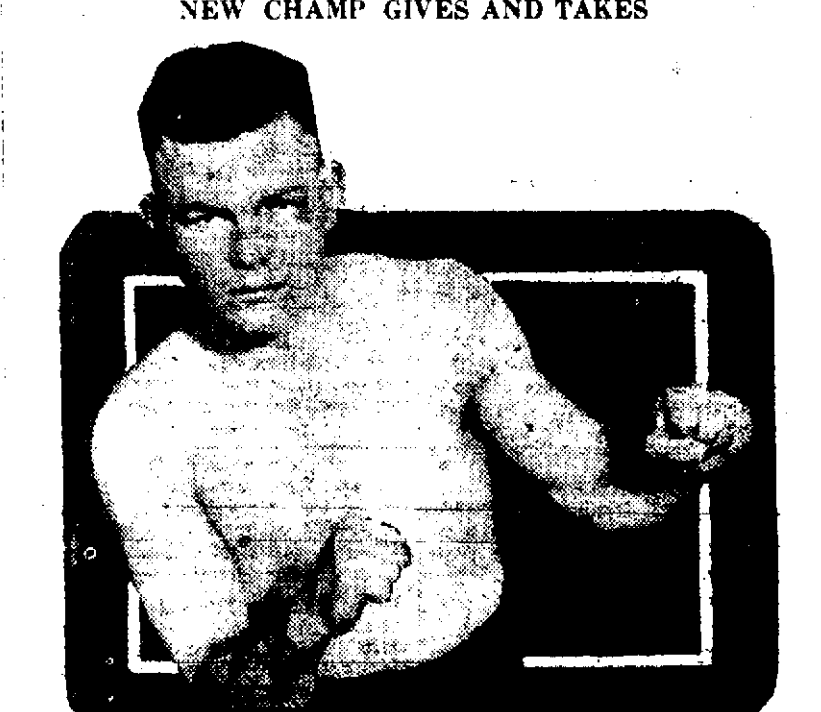

GIVES VERSION OF MANDAN PLAY

The Old Timer writing in the columns of the Bismarck Tribune Saturday must have either accepted the report of some one who saw wrong or was too far gone in this life to see the play "as she was played." He may have knowledge of the rules of the great American game, that the writer does not know, but if he saw the play his vision is impaired, we are sure.

Here is description of the play, and based upon such fact authorities will sustain the decision that was made by umpires:

Even though catcher dropped the third strike the Valley City batter was out, for the reason that first and second bases were occupied by runners. The runner on second had reached third when the ball was blocked by the bat boy, and, hence

CARSON BEATS FLASHER, 2 TO 0

Flasher, N. D., Aug. 1.—Carson defeated Flasher in a 2 to 0 contest which went 11 innings here Sunday afternoon.

It was a game which kept the fans on their toes all during the game. Newcomer huffed for Carson. Carson caught and struck out 9 men while Joe Day pitched for Flasher and Roop caught. Day struck out 14 men.

RUTH HITS OUT HIS 38th HOMER

New York, Aug. 1.—Babe Ruth knocked out his thirty-eighth home run of the season, scoring two men ahead of him, in the sixth inning of the New York-Cleveland American league game here Sunday.

Caldwell was pitching. Ruth is now two days ahead of his 1920 record.

FARGO DEFEATS DEVILS LAKE

Fargo, Aug. 1.—Fargo defeated Devils Lake, 9 to 1, here yesterday. The blow-up came in the ninth inning, two bases on balls and two errors contributed to Fargo's total. Van Skjock, Devils Lake pitcher, was replaced by Hille in the ninth.

VAN HOOK WINS BEFORE 4,000

Van Hook, N. D., Aug. 1.—Van Hook won from Parshall at the county fair at Stanley by a score of 13 to 1 before a crowd of 4,000 fans. Wilson was on the mound for Van Hook and held Parshall to four bingles and struck out 13. Marshall pitched for Parshall, being touched up for 13 safe hits, and was given poor support.

MEN PULL PLOWS ON MEXICAN FARMS

Mexico City, Aug. 1.—Men harnessed to plows and engaged in sturdy cultivation of the soil are not an uncommon sight in the state of Morelos, according to travelers in that region. Beasts of burden are scarce in that state and the small farmers have met the situation by taking their places. The result is that bountiful crops are being grown there. Morelos, incidentally, is being watched with interest here inasmuch as the government's scheme for apportionment of small tracts of land to laborers and the reversion of large haciendas to their original owners—various municipalities—is being carried out there.

According to reports the scheme is working out well and a single district will produce this year more than $600,000 (pesos) worth of rice. Sugar cultivation has been abandoned temporarily because of lack of machinery, which was dismantled and destroyed during various revolutionary periods, and has not been restored.

It is stated, however, that two large sugar mills are to be erected in the state which will meet all needs, when the first crops are harvested within the next 18 months. Morelos is known as one of the richest states in the republic but agriculture has been retarded because, until recently, it was owned practically in toto by 22 landlords who are said to have failed to cultivate the land to the best advantage.

COMEBACK FLIRT WITH SERIES JACK

Frank Baker (top) and Babe Adams.

Back from baseball graves to get their share in this year's world series!

Is that what Babe Adams of the Pirates and Frank Baker of the Yankees are up to.

Of course, neither the Pirates nor the Yankees have clinched pennants, but both clubs are "sitting pretty."

Babe Adams pitched in one world's series in 1909 when the Detroit Tigers and the Pittsburgh Pirates clashed. Adams won two games and Pittsburgh was declared the world's champion club.

Baker has starred in more than one. He was the home-run king when the Athletics were copping annually. He was known as a money player—doing his best work in the big series.

But Baker and Adams were both counted out. And in sports it is common to say that a man can't come back. Daily accounts of games played in the two big leagues include favorable mention of the two veterans.

Adams is one of the stalwarts of the Pirates as he was in 1909. And Baker is batting in the runs the Yankees need so badly in their fight with Cleveland.

Babe Adams is 38 years old and began pitching in 1904 with Parsons, Kan.

Frank Baker is 37 years old and had been out of baseball over a year when the Yankees took him back this spring.

ALIENS RUSH TO GET PROPERTY

Hundreds File Claims With Custodian at Washington—Many Allowed

My Newspaper Enterprise

Washington, Aug. 1.—In a quiet government building at 16th and P streets—more property probably is changing hands daily than at any other point in the United States.

The building is the headquarters of the alien property custodian. That official seized the American property of citizens of Germany and Austria-Hungary during the war. Now he is faced with the task of returning it.

Claims are pouring in by the hundred. Already nearly 3,000 individual cases have been settled. More than 1200 are pending. The claims fall broadly into three classes:

ONE—German or Austrian owned corporations or branches of such corporations operating in the United States.

TWO—Enemy individuals holding land in this country or money deposits in American banks.

THREE—American citizens or others who have debts against enemies and were prevented from collecting them by the seizure of the enemies' property.

Facts and figures on individual cases are held confidential. It is learned from unofficial sources, however, that the claims of some enemy corporations mount into the millions. Prominent among these is said to be the Bosch Magneto Company, which is said to have claims totaling $12,000,000.

Among individuals whose property has been seized are several titled Germans. Countess von Bernstorff, American wife of the former German ambassador to the United States, holds a large tract of valuable property which she is trying to recover.

Claims may be settled in two ways—they may be turned over directly to Attorney-General Daugherty or the claimant may start suit in a United States court. If Daugherty disallows a claim, the claimant can sue.

WORK ON CLUE TO MURDERS

Aberdeen, S. D., Aug. 1.—Vernon C. Miller, Beadle county sheriff, of Huron, and E. Glau, deputy state sheriff, have been working together in this vicinity on a clue which may shed a new light on the recent murder of William D. Henderson, Austin, Tex., at Wolsey, by an alleged I. W. W. member.

While at Groton last Sunday, Glau met two men who said they were on the train at Wolsey when the murder occurred. According to their story told to Glau, Henderson and his two companions were at Woonsocket two days before the Wolsey incident, and at that time were engaged in "hijacking" the transient harvest hands. The men told Glau that when Henderson's party attempted to board the train at Wolsey, several men already on board remembered the trio and fearing a repetition of their holdup tactics, started to put them off. During the melee someone fired the shot which killed Henderson.

Glau was unfamiliar with the details of the murder at the time, but secured the men's names and learned they were working in the neighborhood of Groton. He communicated with State Sheriff John Shanks at Pierre, who in turn transmitted the information to the Beadle county authorities.

If the men can be found and can prove their story, Beadle county officials say, that Henderson was at Woonsocket instead of having come to Wolsey direct from Casper, Wyo., as his companions have testified, a solution of at least a part of the mystery which has surrounded the murder may be near at hand.

PASTOR-HANGER STIRS NATION

Hundreds Congratulate and Condemn Him in Flood of Letters

By Newspaper Enterprise.

Des Moines, Ia., Aug. 1.—News that W. E. Robb, the preacher-shepherd here, is going to hang two murderers with his own hands, has seemingly stirred the entire nation. Hundreds have written to Robb, either congratulating or condemning him.

Rev. Robb says he finds justification for his course in the Bible, and that nothing can sway him from it. Meantime his office desk is swamped with mail, and more letters arrive with every visit of the mailman. Here is what a few of the correspondents say:

Eugene A. Pratt, Cleveland: It is your duty either to resign as sheriff or never to enter the pulpit again. You cannot serve two masters.

H. N. Soliday, Johnson Bible School, Kimberlin, Tenn.: You put your duties toward your fellow men first and your duties to your God second. Punishment is to make criminals repent. Can they repent if you hang them?

Dr. C. T. Riley, Matamoras, O.: You cannot be a follower of Christ and kill your brothers. Ask yourself "What would Christ do?"

Rev. John M. Clark, Topeka, Kan.: Yes, God is a God of justice as well as a God of mercy, but cannot he deal out his own justice? I can't find a word in the Scriptures that would justify you in hanging these men.

Miss Hazel M. Dicks, Marion, Ind.: As an ordained minister, it is your duty to save, not to slay. Are you returning good for evil?

J. A. Rash, Fort Thomas, Ky.: As you kill these men, you are taking from them what only God can give. Should man take what he cannot return?

Mrs. Ethel Upton, Jenks, Okla.: As an officer, it is your duty to hang these men; as a child of God, it is not.

Alfred M. Haggard, officer, Iowa Missionary Society: I congratulate you. Measured by the fair and square side of the Bible, you are right.

Rev. Herbert Scott, Des Moines, Ia.: I am absolutely back of Sheriff Robb. His stand is the right one.
